Title: The National Gypsy Moth Environmental Impact Statement: Public issues and concerns.
Author: Noel F. Schneeberger, USDA Forest Service, Radnor, PA
Abstract: The National Gypsy Moth EIS Team has recently concluded an intensive public outreach (scoping) process to identify issues that need to be addressed in the new EIS. This poster summarizes and presents the results of that process, and the estimated time frame for completion of the new EIS.

Title: Ground Application of MCH and Mass Trapping Reduces Douglas-fir Beetle Infestation in Small Stands.
Authors: Darrell W. Ross, Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR and Gary E. Daterman, USDA Forest Service, Corvallis, OR
Abstract: High risk stands were treated with a combination of MCH bubble capsules and attractant-baited Lindgren funnel traps in an effort to reduce Douglas-fir beetle infestation. Treated stands had significantly fewer mass attacked trees than untreated check stands.

Title: Monitoring Southern Pine Beetle Outbreaks Using GIS
Author: Theresa J. Valentine, USDA Forest Service, Atlanta, GA
Abstract: This poster shows the GIS products developed in support of the Southern Pine Beetle (SPB) Demonstration project. The poster highlights efforts with Red-Cockaded Woodpecker and Southern Pine Beetle, SPB spots and young pine plantations, and relationships of SPB spots and stand type, site index and basal area.

Title: Response of Douglas-Fir Cone and Seed Insects to Implants of Systemic Insecticides in a Northern California Forest and A Southern Oregon Seed Orchard.
Author: Thomas W. Koerber, USDA Forest Service, Berkeley, CA
Abstract: The systemic insecticide acephate implanted into Douglas-fir trees significantly reduced seed damage by the Douglas-fir cone moth, and a cone gall midge; and acephate implant treatment significantly increased the percentage of filled seed by 300% at the Willow Creek California test site.
Minutes of the Executive Committee, Monday, 2 August 1993
Holiday Inn, Athens, Georgia.

The opening meeting of the SFIWC executive committee was called to order by chairman Wes Nettleton at 6:15 pm. Present were Keith Douce, Bob Thatcher, Wayne Berisford, Jim Hyland, Don Canerday, and John Foltz.

The secretary-treasurer reported that the Georgia Center for Continuing Education is handling the registration and expenses for the meeting, so we have no financial report beyond the $2,545.19 in our checking account.

Local arrangements chairman Wayne Berisford and program chairman Keith Douce reported that everything was in order for the start of our 38th annual meeting.

The secretary presented the common names report from Alex Mangini who stated that he had received no requests for new common names.

After a brief discussion about the election of a new chairman and counselor at the final business meeting, the chairman appointed Bob Thatcher to secure nominations for the 2 year term of chairman and John Foltz to get nominations for the 1993-1996 counselor. Keith Douce will secure a volunteer for the 1994 program chairman. All committee members were urged to secure invitations from persons willing to host next year's meeting.

Dr. Canerday, chairman of the University of Georgia Entomology Department, indicated that he was representing Drs Skip Jubb and William Allen, SERA-IEG-12 administrative advisors to the work conference who were unable to attend this year. None of the executive committee had any suggestions or concerns for Dr. Canerday to relay to the southern experiment station and extension directors.

Meeting adjourned at 6:40 pm.
Minutes of the Opening Business Meeting, Tuesday,
3 August 1993
Holiday Inn, Athens, Georgia.

Chairman Wes Nettleton called the opening business meeting of the 38th Southern Forest Insect Work Conference to order at 8:30 am. Dr. William P Flatt, Dean, College of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences, The University of Georgia, welcomed the group to Athens, the home of the Georgia Bulldogs.

The chairman asked that first-time participants be introduced. For news of members, we learned that Tom Payne has moved to the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center in Wooster, Jim Meeker is the new entomologist with the Florida Division of Forestry, replacing Wayne Dixon who advanced to an administrative position in the Florida Division of Plant Industry, and Jose Negron will soon move to the Rocky Mountain Forest Experiment Station in Ft Collins, Colorado. No one knew of any deaths among our membership in the past year.

Secretary-treasurer John Foltz announced that the minutes of last year's meeting were available at the registration desk; members who did not attend the Williamsburg meeting may buy a copy for $3.

Wayne Berisford, local arrangements chairman, explained the layout of the Holiday Inn and how to get to the various meeting rooms. Program chairman Keith Douce noted several changes in the program and apologized for the omission of poster titles and presenters.

Historian Harry Yates reported that this is the third time the conference has met in Athens and the eighth time we have met in the state of Georgia.

Committee Reports

LOSSES. Bobbe Fitzgibbon reported that for the second year the Losses Caused by Forest Insects report had been lost by the airline. She hopes it will be found and delivered before the final business meeting.
COMMON NAMES. Alex Mangini has written that no one submitted any requests for new common names. Anyone interested in proposing a new common name should contact Alex in Pineville for information on the ESA procedures.

PHOTO SALON. Jerry Lenhard asked that persons submitting slides for this year's competition get them to him right away. He also reminded members to assemble outside for group photos during the first coffee break.

It was announced that Jeff Fitzgerald won the Frontalis Cup in the preconference golf tournament on Monday.

Old Business

Ron Billings and Evan Nebeker are cochairing the steering committee for the Second North American Work Conference to be held in San Antonio in April, 1996. They are seeking volunteers for the program committee.

New Business

Chairman Nettleton reminded members that we would have elections for new officers and discuss the time and location of the 1994 meeting at the closing business meeting on Thursday. Bob Thatcher will handle the nominations for Chairman and John Foltz those for Counselor. Anyone interested in being the 1994 program chairman should see Keith Douce.

Tom Payne, chairman of the A. D. Hopkins committee, introduced Jim Solomon, 1992 recipient of the award. Jim provided the group with an entertaining and informative address on four topics: (1) Reflections on A. D. Hopkins; (2) Reminiscing about Jim Solomon; (3) Tall Stories; and (4) Hardwood Entomology.

The recipient of the 1993 A. D. Hopkins Award is Peter Lorio who for 40 years has investigated the role of site, soil, and stand factors in the dynamics of the southern pine beetle.

Meeting adjourned at 10:00 am.
Chairman Wes Nettleton called the meeting to order at 10:30 am.

Information received from the Georgia Center for Continuing Education shows 93 persons registered for the 38th SFIWC. Charles Chellman, Bob Thatcher, and Harry Yates are the three charter members in attendance. Longtime member Rudy Franklin was also present. The secretary reported the sustaining membership from Novo Nordisk Bioindustrials and asked members to thank Temple Bowen for his company's support of our program.

Keith Douce, program chair, reminded those who Georgia pesticide and Society of American Foresters continuing education credits to fill in the appropriate forms.

Wayne Berisford, local arrangements chair, thanked Mark Dalusky, Harry Yates, and Jack Huff for their important contributions in making the meeting a success. He asked all members to fill out and turn in the evaluation forms provided by the Georgia Center.

LOSSES. Bobbe Fitzgibbon reported that the 1993 Losses report had arrived shortly after the opening business meeting and that copies were available at the registration table. She highlighted trends since 1985 (graphic attached).

ELECTIONS. Fred Stephen was elected chairman for 1993-1995 and Lynne Thompson was elected counselor for the period 1993-1996.

1994 MEETING. Dave Drummond and Rich Goyer invited the group to meet in Louisiana for the 1994 work conference. Jim Meeker accepted the job of program chairman.

STUDENT REGISTRATION. Motion by Wayne Berisford that student registration be as low as possible to encourage student participation in the work conference was approved after a brief discussion.

It was announced that there would be a Southern Appalachian Forest Entomology Seminar in February 1994.
Jim Solomon announced that the Hardwoods Lab would have lab tech, field tech, and entomologist positions open in the near future. Persons interested in these positions should contact Jim in Stoneville, MS.

Chairman Nettleton thanked the many people who had worked to make the 38th SFIWC so successful. The membership likewise thanked the chairman for time and effort he contributed over the past 2 years.

Meeting adjourned at 11 am.

The meeting was called to order at 11:10 am. Present were Harry Yates, Lynne Thompson, Jim Solomon, Bob Thatcher, Jim Meeker, Jim Hyland, Bobbe Fitzgibbon, John Foltz, and Wes Nettleton.

The Executive Committee accepted the invitation to hold the 1994 meeting in Louisiana in early August with Rich Goyer and Dave Drummond handling the local arrangements and Jim Meeker developing the program. There was further discussion that students attending at reduced fees should make at least one presentation during the course of the conference.

Motion approved to reimburse Gary DeBarr for the cost of materials if he wishes to make an A. D. Hopkins information plaque for previous recipients of the A. D. Hopkins Award.

This is our 38th annual Southern Forest Insect Work Conference. It is the third time we have met in the city of Athens and the 8th time we have met in the great state of Georgia.

The first SFIWC was held at Athens on 11-12 September 1956 at the George Foster Peabody School of Forestry with a charter membership of 41 attendees. The lack of air conditioning at the University School of Forestry forced the conference to move to the nearby University Court Motel. Elected as officers were: R. J. Kowal, Chairman; R. E. Lee III, Secretary-Treasurer; and L. W. Orr, L. O. Warren and R. E. Heinz counselors. Succeeding conferences in Georgia were the 3rd at Savannah in August of 1958 (41 attendees); the 5th at Macon in December of 1960 (56 attendees); and the 17th in August of 1972 at Atlanta (85 attendees) [it was at the 17th meeting in Atlanta that the ill-fated "Ethical Practices Award" was established by chairman Yates. This award earned a well deserved burial forever some 16 years later at the St. Simons Island meeting in 1988]. Other Georgia meetings were the 21st in August of 1976 at Atlanta (119 attendees); the 25th in August of 1980 at Athens (122 attendees); the 33rd in August of 1988 at St. Simons Island (93 attendees) and finally our 38th here in Athens in 1993. Chairman of Georgia meetings include: R. J. Kowal, L. W. Orr, H. O. Yates III, J. R. Coster, R. L. Heddon, F. L. Hastings and W. A. Nettleton.

A particularly significant Georgia meeting was our 25th at Athens; R. L. Hedden chaired the meeting that featured a silver anniversary banquet attended by 12 of the orginial 41 charter members.

Another social activity was the western style bar-b-que party held at the University Forest Recreation building known as Flinchum's Phoenix. Music was provided by the blue-grass musical group known as the "Rusty String Band". A highly coveted souvenir of this meeting is the 25th anniversary denim cap presented to all registrants!

Report of the A. D. Hopkins Award Committee

The A. D. Hopkins Award Committee met at 6:00 pm, August 2, 1993, in the Corporate Room of the Holiday Inn in Athens, GA. Present were Tom Payne, Chair, Wayne Berisford, Ron Billings, Gary DeBarr, John Godbee, and Fred Stephen. Donna Leonard was not able to be present due to a work-related trip to Russia.

After considerable deliberation, the members present reached the unanimous decision that the 1993 A. D. Hopkins Award would go to Dr. Peter J. Lorio, Jr., for his over 40 years of outstanding contributions to southern forest entomology. It was recognized that Dr. Lorio, even though not formally trained in forest entomology, was nationally and internationally recognized for his contributions to the understanding of soil, site and stand factors in the dynamics of southern pine beetle infestations.

The committee supported the recommendation of the 1992 Committee that next year's chair, Jim Solomon, should make a special effort to contact the nominators of previous nominees who were not selected to encourage them to nominate their candidates, all deserving of the award. It was the committee's hope that those candidates would be nominated again. The committee adjourned at 6:45 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Tom Payne
Chair
This year's Photo Salon set a new record for number of slides submitted. Ten photographers entered 104 slides. I wish to thank these members for a significant contribution to the photo series, as well as providing entertainment after the banquet. The contributors were:

Bob Anderson        Jerry Lenhard
Andy Boone          Jim Meeker
Ron Billings        Jose Negron
J. L. Castner       Scott Salom
John Foltz          Jim Solomon

Judging so many slides was both difficult and time consuming. I'm very grateful for the grueling 3 hours of time our patient judges spent deciding the winners. This year's judges were:

Bruce Kauffman
Lynne Thompson
Joe Pase
